THE IVY

History

- In 1917 Abel Giandolini purchased what was a modest café, which quickly gained favour with the theatre community. Soon after its opening Mario Gallati joined Monsieur Abel in the role of Maitre d' and was instrumental in transforming The Ivy.
- The name itself originated from a chance remark by the actress Alice Delysia, who overheard Monsieur Abel apologise to a customer for the inconvenience caused by building works. When he said that it was because of his intention to create a restaurant of the highest class, she interjected 'Don't worry – we will always come and see you. "We will cling together like the ivy,"' a line from a popular song.
- In 1945, Mario Gallati left to open Le Caprice, finally in 1947. Between his departure and the acquisition of the restaurant by Christopher Corbin and Jeremy King in 1989, The Ivy passed through several hands. Sold by Monsieur Abel to Bernard Walsh of Wheelers in 1950, it was later owned by Joseph Melatini, Lady Grade and the Forte organisation.
- The Ivy was re-launched in 1990: the architect M.J. Long carried out the extensive refurbishment, with leading contemporary artists commissioned to create site-specific works.
- In 2005, Richard Caring acquired Caprice Holdings, having worked closely with the group on a re-styling of the restaurant at his acclaimed, Surrey-based Wentworth Club. The group's first private members' club, The Club at The Ivy – designed by Martin Brudnizki on the 3 floors above The Ivy and its private room – opened in September 2008. It is a dining club that draws on the arts and media, providing a place to work, relax and socialise in the heart of London's West End.
- Following a five month closure and complete refurbishment, The Ivy restaurant and private room re-opened at the beginning of June 2015.
