

The site is near, but not within, the Wandle Valley Conservation Area. The Wandle Valley is predominately an area of natural beauty and biodiversity but also encompasses heritage assets including Merton Abbey Mills.

1. The Salvation Army Mothers' Hospital

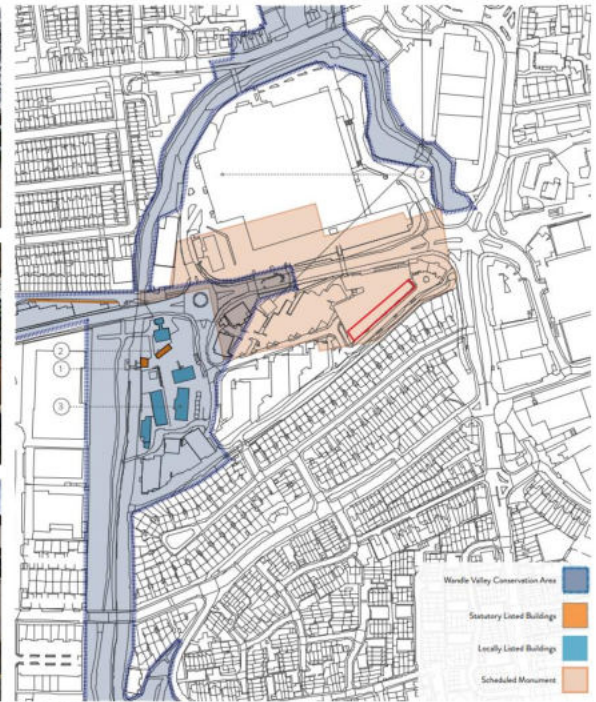

2. Colour House at Merton Library's Print Works

3. Locally listed buildings to the south heritage area

The wider Wandle Valley conservation area within Merton

Conservation Area and listed buildings

This page is intentionally left blank