

A promotional banner for a 'Save Wimbledon Park' event. The background is a photograph of a lush green park with many trees under a clear blue sky. In the top left corner, there is a circular logo featuring a map of Wimbledon Park with the text 'Save Wimbledon Park' overlaid. In the top center, a white rounded rectangle contains the text 'Save Wimbledon Park' in large, bold, black letters, with 'Online 1-2pm 2nd November 2022' in smaller bold black letters below it. In the top right corner, there is the CPRE London logo, which consists of a stylized green and yellow wave graphic above the text 'CPRE' and 'London'. In the center of the banner, the text 'Help Protect the Environment' and 'Hold Merton and the AELTC to their promises' is written in white, bold, sans-serif font. At the bottom of the banner, the main slogan 'Save Wimbledon Park for Future Generations' is written in a large, white, bold, sans-serif font with a black outline.

Save Wimbledon Park
Online 1-2pm 2nd November 2022

CPRE
London

Help Protect the Environment
Hold Merton and the AELTC to their promises

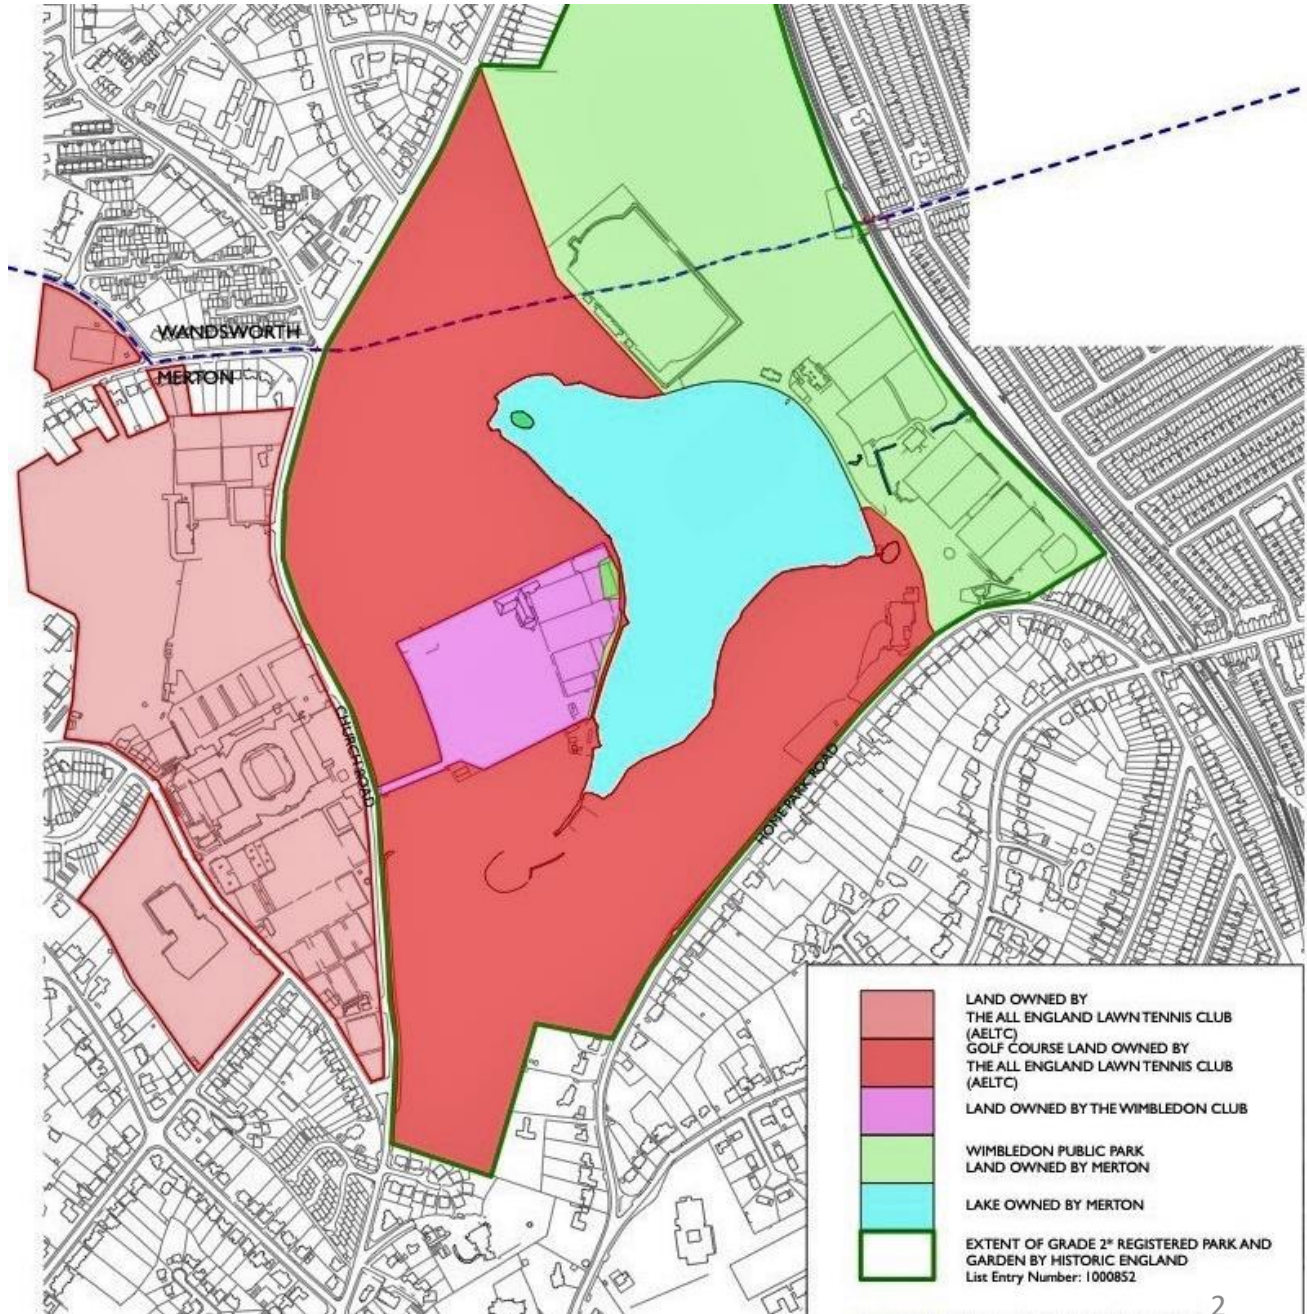

Save Wimbledon Park for Future Generations

Christopher Coombe: The Wimbledon Society

Page 20

Where and how big is it?

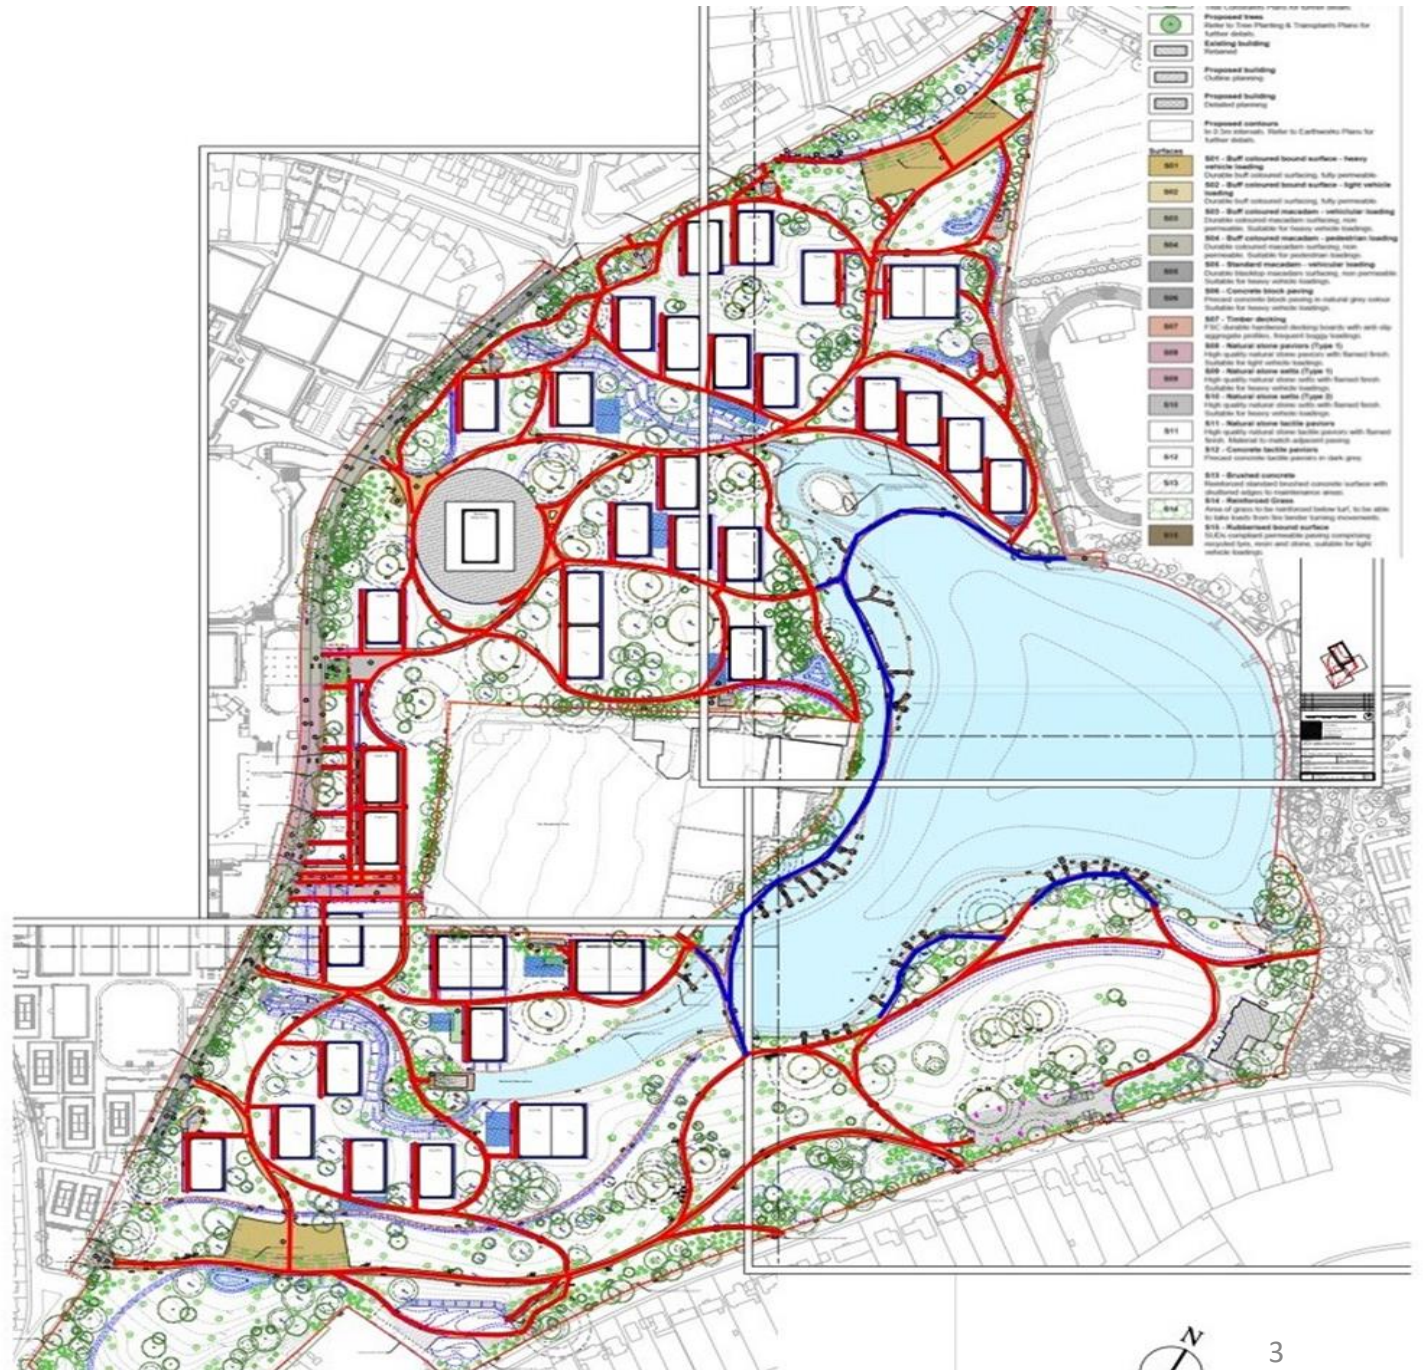

What are they building?

Page 21

- Covered Stadium 28m high x 104m wide
- 38 other tennis courts
- 3,000 sq metre industrial maintenance
- 7 other maintenance hubs
- 2 player hubs
- 9 kms roads and paths

© Neil Thomson Landscape architect

The 1993 Covenants Use and Building

Page 22

1. Not to use ... other than for leisure or recreational purposes or as an open space.
2. No building shall be erected ... other than ... ancillary to the recreational or open space use ... and which ... shall not impair the appreciation of the general public of the extent or openness of the property.

23 September 1993 Wimbledon Borough News

Tony Colman, Merton Council Leader:

“Respecting the wishes of local people, this council is resolute that the land will be retained as open space. All England has bought the land knowing this is our policy and is aware that we would not allow development of the site.”

John Currie, All England Chairman: “We completely understand and support everyone’s determination to keep the land open and we purchased the land on that basis.”

The 1993 Covenants Walkway around the lake

3. As soon as golf ceases, to dedicate a public walkway around the Lake.

(Example notice from Bow Lane, City of London)

The landowner gives notice that this footpath has not been dedicated as a public footpath nor is there any intention to so dedicate it. The public is permitted to walk along this footpath. The landowner may withdraw permission, or temporarily close the path at any time.

This page is intentionally left blank